Desktop License – Andreas Quaisser | Type Design

Version 0.9 — Last updated: 25 November 2025

License Type: Desktop License

1. Parties to the Agreement

This Desktop License (“License”) is a legal agreement between you (“Licensee”) and Andreas Quaisser – Type Design, Pariser Straße 6, 81669 Munich, Germany (“Licensor”).

By purchasing, downloading, installing, or using the Font Software, the Licensee agrees to the terms of this License.

2. Grant of License

The Licensor grants the Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable, perpetual right to install and use the purchased Font Software in accordance with the terms of this Desktop License.

The permitted use is defined exclusively by:

- the Licensee’s worldwide employee count at the time of purchase,
- the rights explicitly listed in this License,
- and the restrictions and prohibitions herein.

Any use beyond the licensed scope requires the purchase of an additional or upgraded license.

3. Scope of Licensed Use (Desktop)

The Desktop License authorizes the Licensee to:

3.1 Local Installation

Install the Font Software on any number of computers, workstations, or local devices within the Licensee’s organization.

3.2 Creation of Visual and Digital Media

Use the Font Software to create:

- documents, presentations, PDFs
- branding, logos, packaging
- marketing materials
- print products
- digital graphics, social media assets
- e-books, editorial design
- broadcast and advertising materials (static or motion)

3.3 Output Protection

The Licensee may embed the font in static, non-editable files, such as PDF exports, rasterized images, and video files, as long as the font is not extractable.

4. Limitations — Desktop vs. Web vs. App & Game

4.1 Desktop License Mandatory for Local Installation

A Desktop License is required whenever the Font Software is installed locally for design, document creation, branding, or production work.

4.2 Desktop License Does Not Cover Web Use

The Desktop License does not permit:

- hosting WOFF/WOFF2 files on a web server,
- displaying the font on a website,
- any @font-face usage.

-> A Web License is required for webfont usage.

4.3 Desktop License Does Not Cover App or Software Embedding

Embedding the Font Software in applications, games, or distributed software products is not covered.

-> An App & Game License is required.

4.4 Agencies & Freelancers

If the Licensee (Client) has purchased a valid Desktop License:

- The Client may provide the font files to its external agency solely for the execution of one specific project.
- The agency may not retain, archive, or reuse the Font Software beyond the project's scope.
- If the agency wishes to use the fonts for additional clients or projects, a separate license must be purchased by the agency or the corresponding client.

4.5 No “Web-Only” or “App-Only” Substitution

A Web License or App & Game License cannot be used to avoid purchasing a Desktop License when local installation occurs.

5. Restrictions

5.1 No Modification

The Licensee may not modify, adapt, alter, reverse-engineer, decompile, or rename the Font Software. Custom modifications may be commissioned from the Licensor as a paid service.

5.2 No Distribution or Sharing

The Licensee may not share, sublicense, lend, rent, or otherwise provide the Font Software to any third party not covered by the Licensee's Desktop License.

Examples of prohibited distribution:

- sending fonts to external freelancers or vendors
- sharing fonts via cloud systems accessible to third parties
- uploading fonts to repositories, libraries, or design systems accessible beyond the Licensee's organization

Exception: Project-specific agency use under Section 4.4.

5.3 No Resale or Transfer of Rights

The Licensee may not resell, assign, or transfer this Desktop License to another entity.

5.4 No Unauthorized Embedding

The Desktop License does not allow embedding fonts in:

- websites (requires Web License)
- apps, games, or software products (requires App & Game License)
- devices, firmware, hardware, or SaaS systems
- editable document formats allowing font extraction

6. Backups

The Licensee may store one backup copy of the Font Software.
Backups may not be shared with third parties.

7. Warranty & Support

7.1 Limited Warranty (30 Days)

The Licensor warrants that the Font Software will install and function on current versions of macOS and Windows and in major design applications for 30 days from purchase.

7.2 Installation Support

If installation issues occur within 30 days, contact:

support@tabulatype.studio

The Licensor will provide reasonable support but cannot guarantee compatibility with all hardware or custom environments.

7.3 Exclusions

The warranty does not apply to issues caused by:

- user modification of the font
- unsupported operating systems
- corrupt installation environments
- third-party font managers or tools

7.4 No Further Warranty

The Font Software is tested extensively, but the Licensor does not guarantee suitability for every possible workflow or technical setup.

8. Limitation of Liability

The Licensee uses the Font Software at their own risk.

The Licensor is not liable for indirect or consequential damages, including lost profits, data loss, or production downtime. Total liability is limited to the amount paid for the Desktop License.

9. Termination

The Licensor may terminate the License if the Licensee materially breaches its terms, including:

- selecting a Desktop License tier below the true company size at purchase
- sharing the Font Software with unauthorized third parties
- using Webfonts or embedding the font without the appropriate license

Before termination, the Licensor will:

- notify the Licensee,
- allow reasonable time to correct the situation (typically 14 days).

If unresolved, the License terminates and all copies must be deleted.

10. Governing Law

This License is governed by German law.
Jurisdiction is Munich, Germany.
